THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF

Charles Haddon Spurgeon

By his wife and private secretary

At odd moments during a busy life the lamented Spurgeon prepared chapter after chapter of his own autobiography; thus the work comes to us the product of hand and heart—not a mere record of a life, but an interpretation of the motives and influences that guided this great man.

The work is of peculiar importance to the ministry. Every incident in the life is made to form the basis of teaching some lesson of pertinent application, warning, or exhortation.

PROCEEDINGS.

Nelson's Chapel, Franklin County,
August 17, 1898.

The Wake Baptist Association met with the Nelson's Chapel Baptist Church August 17, 1898.

The house was called to order by Rev. J. Perry, the Moderator, at 3:30 p. m.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C. Johnson and Prof. S. N. Vass.

Hymn 636 in Baptist Hymn-Book was sung.

Proffessor Vass read Jeremiah xxiii, and offered prayer. Hymn 508 was next sung.

Rev. P. T. Hall, the pastor of the church, then came forward and extended a hearty welcome to the messengers and visitors.

In the absence of Bro. Saulter, who had been designated to make the response, Bro. Price, in a few fitting words, responded in behalf of the Association.

The Moderator, Rev. J. Perry, delivered his annual address. Bro. Perry reviewed the work of the Association since its organization, thirty-two years ago. He reminded the audience that the great work of the Association is to be helpful to each other. To do this there must be unity between the pastors and churches. No preacher should ever allow a church to split on him. The preacher must be an advocate of the unity of the brotherhood—must preach the pure gospel and thus feed the flock. Why we have so many poor, sickly people in our churches, they do not get the proper food. The flock cannot fatten on chaff. The people are beginning to recognize us, not by what we say, but by what we do. Those people who will not give anything for foreign missions because there is so much to do at home never do anything at home. We must pay more attention to our Sunday-school work. Some of our pastors do not identify themselves with their work, and let others come in and teach our children doctrine that we do not believe. If you believe that you are right, then teach your children what you believe and practice. Again, we must not lose sight of educational work. Every mother and father should see that the children attend school.

Don't take your children out of school because they can make a dollar. It will be loss in the end.

Dr. Walden, Professor Debnum, Professor Vass, Professor Vincent and Rev. J. A. Whitted were introduced to the Association; also Rev. T. J. Plummer and Rev. M. T. Somerville. All these brethren were made welcome to seats.
